

Stations of the Cross Holy week Compline Address- Monday

Setting the scene: You may like to light a candle or play some quiet reflective music or hold a cross.

Tonight, we are going to reflect on the first station of the cross.

You are invited to walk with Jesus on this sorrowful journey. To listen, to see, to feel the enormity of Christ's passion.

1st Station. Jesus is condemned to death

²⁸ They took Jesus from Caiaphas to Pilate's headquarters. It was early in the morning. They themselves did not enter the headquarters, so as to avoid ritual defilement and to be able to eat the Passover. ²⁹So Pilate went out to them and said, 'What accusation do you bring against this man?' ³⁰They answered, 'If this man were not a criminal, we would not have handed him over to you.' ³¹Pilate said to them, 'Take him yourselves and judge him according to your law.' The Jews replied, 'We are not permitted to put anyone to death.' Then Pilate entered the headquarters again, summoned Jesus, and asked him, 'Are you the King of the Jews?' ³⁴Jesus answered, 'Do you ask this on your own, or did others tell you about me?' ³⁵Pilate replied, 'I am not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests have handed you over to me. What have you done?' ³⁶Jesus answered, 'My kingdom is not from this world. If my kingdom were from this world, my followers would be fighting to keep me from being handed over to the Jews. But as it is, my kingdom is not from here.' ³⁷Pilate asked him, 'So you are a king?' Jesus answered, 'You say that I am a king. For this I was born, and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice.' ³⁸Pilate asked him, 'What is truth?' After he had said this, he went out to the Jews again and told them, 'I find no case against him. ³⁹But you have a custom that I release someone for you at the Passover. Do you want me to release for you the King of the Jews?' ⁴⁰They shouted in reply, 'Not this man, but Barabbas!' Pilate said to them, 'Take him yourselves and crucify him; I find no case against him.' ⁷The Jews answered him, 'We have a law, and according to that law he ought to die because he has claimed to be the Son of God.' John 18: 28-40

Moment of Silence

Pause for Reflection

Jesus's trial is a farce, even Pontius Pilate thinks him 'not guilty'. He is accused by his enemies and bears all the accusations, and malicious words of condemnation.

He is scorned by those he came to save

Was Jesus at the point of death guilty of sin? Or rather of carrying any sin? And if so were they his or ours?

Compline Night Prayer

The Lord almighty grant us a quiet night and a perfect end. Amen.

Our help is in the name of the Lord: Who made heaven and earth.

A period of silence for reflection on the past day may follow.

Most merciful God, we confess to you, before the whole company of heaven and one another, that we have sinned in thought, word and deed and in what we have failed to do. Forgive us our sins, heal us by your Spirit and raise us to new life in Christ. Amen.

O God, make speed to save us.

O Lord, make haste to help us.

The following or another hymn may be sung

Abide with me, fast falls the eventide
The darkness deepens Lord, with me abide
When other helpers fail and comforts flee
Help of the helpless, oh, abide with me

Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away
Change and decay in all around I see
O Thou who changest not, abide with me

I fear no foe, with Thee at hand to bless
Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness
Where is death's sting?
Where, grave, thy victory?
I triumph still, if Thou abide with me...

The Word of God

Psalmody

Psalm 139

1. O Lord, you have searched me out and known me; • you know my sitting down and my rising up; you discern my thoughts from afar.
- 2 You mark out my journeys and my resting place • and are acquainted with all my ways.
- 3 For there is not a word on my tongue, • but you, O Lord, know it altogether.
- 4 You encompass me behind and before • and lay your hand upon me.
- 5 Such knowledge is too wonderful for me, • so high that I cannot attain it.
- 6 Where can I go then from your spirit? • Or where can I flee from your presence?
- 7 If I climb up to heaven, you are there; • if I make the grave my bed, you are there also.
- 8 If I take the wings of the morning • and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea,
- 9 Even there your hand shall lead me, • your right hand hold me fast.
- 10 If I say, 'Surely the darkness will cover me • and the light around me turn to night,'
- 11 Even darkness is no darkness with you; the night is as clear as the day; • darkness and light to you are both alike.
- 12 For you yourself created my inmost parts; • you knit me together in my mother's womb.
- 13 I thank you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made; • marvelous are your works, my soul knows well.
- 14 My frame was not hidden from you, • when I was made in secret and woven in the depths of the earth.
- 15 Your eyes beheld my form, as yet unfinished; • already in your book were all my members written,
- 16 As day by day they were fashioned • when as yet there was none of them.
- 17 How deep are your counsels to me, O God! • How great is the sum of them!
- 18 If I count them, they are more in number than the sand, • and at the end, I am still in your presence.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning is now and shall be for ever. Amen.

Prayers

Intercessions and thanksgivings may be offered here.

The Collect

Almighty God, as we stand at the foot of the cross of your Son, help us to see and know your love for us, so that in humility, love and joy we may place at his feet all that we have and all that we are; through Jesus Christ our Saviour.

Amen

The Lord's Prayer may be said.

The Conclusion

In peace we will lie down and sleep; for you alone, Lord, make us dwell in safety.

Abide with us, Lord Jesus, for the night is at hand and the day is now past.

As the night watch looks for the morning, so do we look for you, O Christ.

Save us, O Lord, while waking, and guard us while sleeping, that awake we may watch with Christ and asleep may rest in peace. Amen
